

§ 702.15 Penalties.

(a) Persons violating provisions of 2 U.S.C. 167a to 167e, inclusive, regulations promulgated pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 167f, this Regulation, or other applicable Federal laws relating to the Library's property, including its collections, are subject to removal from the premises, to arrest, and to any additional penalties prescribed by law. In instances of mutilation or theft of Library materials or other Library property, prosecution by appropriate authorities shall be in accordance with the provisions of the statutes cited in § 702.11.

(b) Upon written notification by the Associate Librarian for Management, disruptive persons may be denied further access to the premises and may be prohibited from further use of the Library's facilities.

(1) Within three workdays of receipt of such notification, an affected individual may make a written request, including the reasons for such a request, to the Associate Librarian for Management for a reconsideration of said notification.

(2) The Associate Librarian for Management shall respond within three workdays of receipt of such request for reconsideration and may, at his or her option, rescind, modify, or reaffirm said notification.

PART 703—AVAILABILITY OF LIBRARY OF CONGRESS RECORDS

Sec.

703.1 Policy.

703.2 Records covered.

703.3 Exemptions.

703.4 Procedures for inspection and copying of records.

703.5 Public reading facility.

703.6 Fees.

AUTHORITY: 2 U.S.C. 136.

SOURCE: 41 FR 2230, Jan. 15, 1976, unless otherwise noted.

§ 703.1 Policy.

Subject to limitations set forth in this part, Library of Congress records are available as hereinafter provided and shall be furnished as promptly as possible within the Library to any member of the public at appropriate places and times and at an appropriate fee, if any. Although this policy reflects the public information section of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 552, et seq.) as amended, the application of that legislation to the Library of Congress is not to be inferred; nor should this document be considered as conferring on any member of the public a right under that Act of access to or information from the records of the Library.

§ 703.2 Records covered.

As used herein, Library of Congress "records" include all books, papers, maps, photographs or other documentary materials exclusive of materials in the collections of the Library of Congress, regardless of physical form or characteristics, made or received by the Library of Congress in pursuance of Federal law or in connection with the transaction of public business, and preserved, or appropriate for preservation, by the Library as evidence of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the Government or because of the informational value of data contained therein. The term refers only to such items in being and in the possession or under the control of an office of the Library. It does not include records to be compiled or procured in the future, nor does the term include objects or articles, such as furniture, paintings, sculpture, three-dimension models, structures, vehicles, and equipment.

§ 703.3 Exemptions.

(a) The Library shall exempt from disclosure materials that are:

(1) Specifically authorized under criteria established by Executive order to be withheld from public disclosure in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and are in fact properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 11652;

(2) Related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of the Library;

(3) Specifically exempted from disclosure by statute;
